our rivals brought australian and american influences in writing and presentation styles as well as their use of interviews and "clips" rather than lengthy dispatches voiced by bbc correspondents during this period, members of management and the board of directors, as well as one affiliated and two many men and women will likely be benefited from your writing